7.30pm

at Bridgwater Museum

5 Blake St,
Bridgwater, TA6 3NB

Brian Smedley is has been a prominent member of the Bridgwater community for many years. As well as being leader of Bridgwater Town Council and Chairman of the Corporate Scrutiny Committee on Sedgemoor District Council he is a punk musician, writer, playwright and performer in his own theatre company. He established and is a key figure in the Bridgwater Czech Slovak Friendship Society and is a force for social change. From such an informed and international background, he promises to give us an incisive insight into the town's historical role in slavery.

VISITORS WELCOME
